"superior performance of duty while serving as Ammunitions Assistant for Battery D, 2nd Battalion, 14th Marines, 4th Marine Division, Marine Forces Reserve from 7 June 1997 to 21 June 1997. During this time, Sergeant Matusiak performed his demanding duties in an exemplary and highly professional manner at Operation Rolling Thunder 97. While working with the battery ammunition train, Sergeant Matusiak was very meticulous concerning the proper handling and transportation of the unit's ammunition supply. This Marine's willingness to learn the fundamentals of each piece of ammunition helped ensure proper distribution to the gun line in a safe and expedient manner. He kept the ammunition trucks in top working condition with regular preventive maintenance to eleviate any down time. Sergeant Matusiak made sure that the ammunition in each truck was compatible and within limits for transportation. He understood the goals of the mission and worked well with fellow Marines. During all phases of the operation, under arduous conditions, he kept a positive attitude and constantly put the needs of others before his own. Sergeant Matusiak's professional attitude and tireless devotion to duty reflected great credit upon himself, Delta Battery, and the United States Marine Corps."
